Republican Hindu Coalition Meet to Announce 2018 and 2020 elections Strategy

Republican Hindu Coalition (RHC) and Shalabh 'Shalli' Kumar have been working hard and are successful in influencing US Administration and policy makers to work in favor of Hindus and India. Recent visit by PM Modi was a great example - President Trump not only made references to the promises he made at the RHC New Jersey rally while historical deals were made.

With a mission to provide a single unified platform to build a strong, effective & respected Hindu-American voice in Washington and across the country, Republican Hindu Coalition (RHC) is working on expanding its activities. RHC would like to invite you for a meeting and press meet as we discuss and announce its plans for 2018 and 2020 elections and next steps for the organization. Please RSVP by replying to this email or calling the media contacts if you are able to attend. Following are the program details:
